What we do

We are a Christian charity on a mission to offer the Bible to the world.

The Mary Jones Pilgrim Centre is a unique, mission-focused visitor centre that brings to life the remarkable story of Mary Jones and Revd Thomas Charles and portrays the profound impact of the Bible on Wales and the world. Housed in the ancient St Beuno's Church, a site of Christian worship for more than 1,500 years, the Centre holds deep connections with the British and Foreign Bible Society, co-founded by Charles in 1804. The historic churchyard, where Charles himself is buried, adds to the significance and spiritual resonance of the site.

Nestled on the shores of Llyn Tegid, Wales's largest natural lake, and set within the stunning Snowdonia National Park, an area of outstanding natural beauty, Mary Jones Pilgrim Centre offers an inspiring setting. With a warm and inclusive atmosphere, the team welcomes visitors from all walks of life, including school groups, global travellers and members of the local community. The Centre is committed to connecting people with the rich legacy of Mary Jones and Thomas Charles while fostering a sense of community and reflection. Since its opening, the Centre has welcomed over 21,000 visitors, each encouraged to explore the question:

'Where will the story take you?'

Our aim is for all who visit to leave feeling inspired, enriched and encouraged by the story of Mary Jones and her Bible.
